President Jasmin Zhai

Dear Fellow Toastmasters, Happy New Year!

I still remember the first time when I joined Toastmasters meeting as a guest, I asked a member "How do you think about this organization?" he answered me very simple -

"You can feel it". Followed by heart, I joined Shenzhen Toastmasters Club in March of 2008, I have served SZTM as VPM and Treasure, but never thought one day I can become the president. But Toastmasters is the place to build your confidence. Today, I write down below words as the President of Shenzhen Toastmasters Club, I felt very proud and with strong sense of responsibility to carry out my promise - lead my team achieve the goal of President's Distinguished Club!

I have ever left SZTM for 2 years due to my personal reason. During that period, I missed my friends and my club very much. A magic power drew me back. In last March, I rejoined my club, at that time, SZTM was facing a hard situation. Fortunately, our Governor took action immediately, we got the help from the brother & sister clubs, they helped us to turn the "English free talk" as normal meeting and gradually we can organize our regular meeting better and better. I appreciated their great support to our SZTM, especially Angela, Sarah, Tony and the officers from NETM, EOE, Ship, Sunshine..

Your contribution encouraged us and aroused our passion.

Furthermore, there is a person I think just a sentence "Thank you very much!" can not express my appreciation and admire from bottom of my heart. She devoted her heart and soul to Shenzhen Toastmasters Club; she coached the new officer team patiently but also strictly; she did not absent from every regular meeting and EXCO meeting; she wrote lots of emails with professional manner to our officers, to advise us how to perform on the platform of Toastmasters; she acted as a role model to tell us how to be a good leader; she guided SZTM has risen from the valley bottom. Dear Ivy, we love you!

That is the spirit of Toastmasters, we support each other and then grow up, that is what we called "one for all, All for one"! 2013, a new start, we must do something different, and we have confidence to make another summit of success!

Happy Toastmastering

Time flies ! One and half years already passed since my joining in Shenzhen

Toastmasters. Within such period of time, I've witnessed the ups and downs in SZTM, which proves to be meaningful. For it provides me the stage to change better and grow stronger . For the coming 2013, I shall set no big goals , what I will do is to be more pragmatic, try to make little progress everyday, try to challenge myself , to learn so as to give at the same time.

Really loving my toastmasters' journey, enjoying every mement with my fellow toastmasters. 2013 , SZTM is well on the way to achieve more Joining us , Make the difference ,and Color your life.

Happy 2013, Happy Toastmastering !
